Teaching this term

Over the summer months we continue to explore the theme of 'Simple courage in challenging times' through the lives of some Old Testament characters. There will be familiar names (Moses, Ruth), but also less well known characters such as Gideon, Rahab and Deborah.

Dip into Judges chapter 4-6 to see how God calls unlikely people to serve his Kingdom purposes. Are we willing to say "Yes" when God calls us into action today?

Pentecost and beyond

'Fan into flame the gifts of the Holy Spirit! Use them to build up everyone else! The least, greatest, youngest and oldest can all do this and the church will grow in love. Expect prophecies, healings and other miracles whenever you meet – then on the streets and by sick beds. See the Kingdom of God come.'

CAP money coaching course

4 sessions of advice on managing finances and budgeting. Starting Wednesday 26th June 7.30-9.30pm at the Cathedral conference centre.

Visit <https://www.elycap.org/> or email office@stmarysely.org or phone 01353 659550 to sign up for free.

Key Question: [IN] Who can you encourage that “God stands with us”?

Challenge: Pray for God's reassurance and equipping as we meet challenging situations.
